BEAR CATS OF PETERSBURG

The Bear Cats' bowling team, of Petersburg, has made a good record this season with the big pins, and are now among the leaders in the race for the permit in the Petersburg Bowling Association. This team created a sensation in the Richmond bowling tournament, and the players came in for a big slice of the prize money. The following players compose the team, and all are good ones and have a good average in the standing column: Barksdale, captain; Walke, Fritz, Young, Lewis and Mosca. These players were among the leaders in the part in the coming Petersburg tournament. Schedule for the Week at Newport Alleys.

Tuesday night—Make-Ups vs. Engravers (Times-Dispatch League); Remington Typewriter vs. Richmond Lunch (Newport League).
Wednesday night—Ad Men vs. Monotypes (Times-Dispatch League); Bishop Shirt Company vs. C. & O. Railway (Commercial League).
Thursday night—Alcoa vs. Cook Printing Company (Newport League).
Friday night—Everett Wadley company vs. Vaughan-Robertson (Commercial League).

guin has wintered handsomely, and looks as any man's three-year-old, and Discovery, although a maiden, seems to be much of a maiden. He stepped a half in better than forty-eight seconds the other day.
Tart and Monocacy will come up from Charleston to-morrow, seasoned by a winter's racing, and should prove formidable. They won right along through the winter at Palmetto Park. With such a bunch of horses from which to draw a field, the feature event of the Jamestown Jockey Club's opening promises better than did ever the feature of a Benning's opening.

Norfolk, he it remembered, has taken the place of Benning's as the lead-off of the Eastern Circuit, and will never relinquish it. Norfolk is on the Jockey Club's may to stay, and she possesses advantages as to climate to the like of which no other city on the Atlantic seaboard can lay claim.

It is conceded on all sides that not in years have so many smart two-year-olds been ready the 1st of April for the colors, and Norfolk offers a stake, the Juvenile of $1,000, four furlongs, which will bring some of the most precocious of them to the track under conditions calculated to develop a spirited contest.

Harry Payne Whitney, proprietor of the Brookdale stud, in New Jersey, is the biggest nominator in the Juvenile and will have one or two starters. His cleverest filly here, under the care of Albert Simons, is said to be Delft, a daughter of Blue Girl, and nice things are reported of Trump, a half-sister to Tarts. Trumps is bred to run. Her mother is a full sister to Artful, the thorough bride, and Simons has an other potential candidate of merit in Eaver Bey, son of Ballyhoo Bey, who will bear the silks of Lewis S. Thompson of Virginia and New Jersey.

The stable of August Belmont is said to be the most ready of the several aggregations of thoroughbreds Benning has sent to Norfolk, and the chairman of the Jockey Club has two Juvenile candidates in Fathom and Tea Enough, the last named being a half-sister to Fleet Dick Welles and his stouter-hearted and more celebrated half brother, Ort Wells, now at stud service in the German Empire.

The Belmont horses arrived at the race track on Thursday, under the care of a younger brother of Louis Feustel, chief trainer of the stable. Since Gordon, the most successful youngster developed at Charleston, was defeated last Wednesday, it is likely that the stable of J. L. Holland, the broker of Buffalo, will be represented by Garl, and Garl is believed by discriminating students of juvenile form to be a better colt than Gordon.

Colonel Israel Millades Parr, of Baltimore, the most liberal nominator of Virginian-breds, has a quietest from the late Captain R. J. Hancock's Ellerslie stud, which Lewis Garth brought down from Benning to top conditions, and young Garth himself has a candidate in the Kentucky-bred filly Lady Esterling, daughter of Lord Esterling, and full sister to that good sprinter of a few seasons back, Lady Esther. The filly, a son of Glorifier and Ianna, is alleged to be the most forward of Colonel Parr's eligibles, and with Wanda, a daughter of Katharine and Wanda, a close second. True as Steel and Chief Magistrate are to bear the silks of the Quincey stable, which is owned in New York City, and they are cracking good youngsters.

True as Steel, a Broomstick gelding, out of Loyal, and well named, was ready to run ten days ago, when Hugh Penny, the man who purchased him, and his stable companion from the Whitney establishment, turned him over to the late Captain R. J. Hancock, who is now in the last week and looks to be in midseason form. Chief Magistrate is not, perhaps, as forward, but he is easily ready for a brush of half a mile with anything the Juvenile may attract.

The Juvenile will be run next Saturday. The other stakes—the Jamestown and Monticello Hotel handicaps—will be run the last week of the meeting. The former is to be an affair for selling placers, at one mile, the purse being $1,000, and the latter a dash of one mile and a sixteenth, for $1,500. Distance-running, second-raters will make up the field in the Jamestown, and the top notches of the three and up division will go in the Monticello.

Lochell, with whose form patrons of the Norfolk races are not unfamiliar, will be one of the starters in the Monticello, as will Jawbone, winner of the Charleston Derby a year ago; John Furlong, the champion handicap horse of the Palmetto Park session, which ended yesterday; Flahbergast, a corking good three-year-old of last season; The Rump, Warhorn, Everett, winner of the Bowie handicap at Baltimore in 1910 and holder of the American record of 3:25 3-5 for two miles; Nash Cash, Merry Lad, winner of the Monticello Hotel Handicap last fall; Bourbon Beau, who ran a mile in better than 1:38 at Juarez last winter; Carlton G. and Talecarrier.

The new meeting has the stamp of the Jockey Club's approval, and as the foregoing indicates, it will have the active support of the most representative Eastern horsemen. The stewards will be Joseph Murphy and F. J. Bryan, the judges Edward Cole and F. W. Gerhardt, the starter Mara Cassidy, the clerk of the scales Herman Conner, the clerk of the course Joseph McLean, and the paddock and patrol judge Harry White, all of whom bring the endorsement of the stewards of the Jockey Club.

WITH PALACE BOWLERS BY R. N. (JAKE) ROWSEY

The Palace Duckpin League closed last week after a very successful season. The Virginian team lead them all, coming out winner by a large majority, playing sixty games, winning forty-five and losing fifteen for a percentage of 75.
The Journal team stood second in the standing with fifty-seven games played, thirty-four won and twenty-three lost, with a percentage of 68.
The Palace team finished in third place after giving the Journal a hard battle for second station during the last few weeks of the season.
The Palace team finished with sixty games played, thirty-three won, twenty-seven lost, with a percentage of 60.
The small maple knights are sorry the season closed. Many high scores were swung over all lines running into Lexington, been organized with F. W. McNano as chairman, and will assume all responsibility connected with the comfort and entertainment of the visitors, during the season by many of the maple splitters.

C. H. Cosby, captain of the Palace team, captured high average during the season, playing in sixty games, with an average of 106-2.
Little boy Richardson came second in the average column with 104-3 in thirty-nine games.
As a whole most all of the players held a standard average.

Palace Duckpin Tourney.
The Palace duckpin tournament is about open giving one more week for entry blanks to be sent or filled by new bowlers. Entries close Saturday, April 5, at midnight. Many entries have been received already, and a good many more are expected in this week.

THIRTY-SIX TEAMS FOR TRACK MEET

Interscholastic Games at Washington and Lee Next Month Attract Many Athletes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lexington, Va., March 29.—Improvements on Wilson athletic field, in preparation for the coming Washington and Lee University interscholastic track and field games which will be held at Lexington, Va., on Saturday, April 26, have been completed and the track is now in excellent condition for the events.

Entry blanks have been mailed to the thirty-six schools which have signified their intention of entering teams as well as to many other schools which to the present time have not reached a decision. Enclosed with these blanks, the track management has forwarded to all the schools a circular of information which shows train schedules over all lines running into Lexington, transportation rates, list of schools, suggestions to managers, etc. The circular is a neat affair, and in the university's colors and should prove of much assistance to the managers in completing their arrangements.

The assistance which the Southern, Chesapeake and Ohio and the Norfolk and Western Railroads have given and the co-operation which they have advanced has been a source of much gratification to the Washington and Lee management. Not only have the railroads made out condensed time tables and schedules of round trip and day rates for the Lexington meet, but special representatives expected to take up the matter of transportation with the managers of the different interscholastic teams.

Within the past week Episcopal Academy of Philadelphia, Technical High School of Washington, the Huntington High School of Huntington, W. Va., have sent in their acceptance of the invitation previously sent them. Fredericksburg public school and Fredericksburg College preparatory have sent in favorable letters of inquiry and Manager Richardson of the Blue and White, feels that their coming will bring new teams, excellent. With these five new teams added, the number of schools stands at thirty-six at the present writing. The revised list is as follows: New York State, Brooklyn Polytechnic Preparatory, Pennsylvania, Brown Preparatory, Delaware School of Commerce, Academy, all of Philadelphia, Maryland, Baltimore City College, Baltimore Polytechnic School, Annapolis High School, Annapolis, Wisconsin School, Salisbury, W. C. High School, Funkstown, District of Columbia—Central High School, Technical High School, Western High School, from Washington, Virginia—Alexandria High School, Episcopal High School, both from Alexandria, Woodberry Forest, Woodberry Forest, Agricultural High, Manassas High, from Manassas, McGuire's School, Richmond, York Union Military Academy, Fork Union, Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Staunton Military Academy, Staunton, Danville High School, Lynchburg High, Lynchburg, Fredericksburg College Preparatory, Fredericksburg Public School, from Fredericksburg, Greenville High, Greenville, North Carolina—Asheville School, Asheville High School, Asheville, West Virginia—St. Mary's High, Huntington High, Martinsburg High, High School, from Martinsburg, Virginia State Preparatory School of Heyser, Tennessee—Tennessee Military Institute, from Tennessee, Marion Military Institute, Marion.

From the beginning it has been the intention of the Washington and Lee University student body to consider all visiting interscholastic athletes as their guests, and to be the same as in the Richmond Bowling Association—Rowsey, Ellis, Lambeth, Wade and Schmitts. Yours truly, J. T. BAILEY.

R. A. Rowsey, Captain Remington
We hereby challenge your team for a series of games, three on Palace and three on Newport, or five games on Newport Alley. Total plus to count, should you accept this challenge our team will be as follows:
The Times-Dispatch—Bailey, captain; McFarland, Thorpe, Cook, Deasy, and your team to be the same as in the Richmond Bowling Association—Rowsey, Ellis, Lambeth, Wade and Schmitts. Yours truly, J. T. BAILEY.

Roanoke Amateurs Lose.
Bedford City, Va., March 29.—Randolph-Macon Academy defeated Roanoke City League in a fast and exciting game of baseball 7 to 5. Roanoke was held to three runs until the ninth inning, when two men scored. This is the second victory for the Academy during this season, having defeated Randolph-Macon College here Tuesday by score of 1 to 5.

DOWN THE ALLEYS

BY WHIT WHITMAN.

All of the leagues in the Richmond Bowling Association resumed their schedules last week on the Newport Alleys, and many record scores were made by the teams and individual players. One unique feature was that the leaders were stationed from their mooring by the teams that were hugging the last round. This feat was accomplished in all three leagues.

Tuesday night the Cook Printing Co. sprung a big surprise on the Remington Typewriter, when they ran away with all three games by a big margin.
Wednesday night Vaughan-Robertson Drug Company aggregation whitewashed the Bishop Shirt Company in a pretty contested series, and came out victorious by winning two out of the three games.

The biggest surprise of the week happened on Thursday night, when the Richmond Lunch met the strong Alcoa five in a double-header. The Richmond room boys had blood in their eyes, and went after the leaders from the first drop of the hat. When the smoke had cleared away, the Lunch-roomers had gone with five games out of the six, making for them a big change in the standing column.

In the Times-Dispatch League the same tactics were observed, and changes were made by both the individual players and the teams. Some of the highest records made during the season were smashed by the players. The Chesapeake and Ohio team, which has taken over the franchise of T. W. Wood & Son, made its debut Friday night, when the Everett Wadley Co. team was met for the first series, and the C. & O. boys made a fine showing, putting up a game fight. They, however, are overpowered by their opponents. But, nevertheless, they did good work, and were given hearty welcome by the large crowd present.

The Newport League completed the regular schedule the past week, but will take up the next three weeks in playing off the many postponed games that have occurred during the season.

Petersburg's Annual Tournament.
At a meeting of the Petersburg Bowling Association last night in the Cockade City the association decided to hold a tournament beginning Monday, April 28, and running until Monday, April 29, under the same conditions of the Richmond tournament recently held. Judging from interest already shown, promise of its being a great success is given. The tournament will be open to all bowlers in Richmond and Petersburg in classes A, B and C in each event. It is hoped that Richmond will join in and send over a large delegation to take part. The Cockade City was well represented in the Richmond tournament, and made a most creditable showing.

Application blanks have already been received, and can be had at the Newport Alleys. All entries must be mailed to Secretary E. O. Talmage, of the Petersburg Bowling Association, not later than Wednesday night, April 24.

The individual tournament which was to be held at the Newport Alleys, beginning Monday, April 7, has been called off to allow the bowlers to take

NORFOLK READY FOR SPRING MEET

be one of the starters. That fast, but whimsical son of Isidor and Arrowgrass, who claims the brilliant Irish lead for half brother, got in from Charleston the other day in the stable of Dr. L. M. Ashe, of Sheephead Bay, with Jim Arthur as trainer, and both ward boys that wintered at Palmetto Park were ready to take the field. They are never better.

They say he can sprint swiftly and go far, although he was not especially successful at Charleston. That, however, should not be held against him. The running of many horses at Palmetto Park was erratic beyond explanation.

Hoffman Probable Favorite.
Hoffman, who will probably be the Norfolk Selling Race favorite, may have Aviator, the winner of two races here last fall, as one of his opponents. The son of Broomstick is one of the best looking and quite the most forward of the several aggregations of thoroughbreds Benning has sent to Norfolk, and he is good in any going.

And with these veterans of mature age will run Tactics, who made his debut here a couple of years back under the silks of August Belmont. His breeder, Spohn, who seems to be as good as anything in the stable of H. G. Bedwell, W. F. Pine's Sir Blaise, J. W. Hedrick's Sherwood; Mrs. Livingston's Stentor; Woods Stockton's Chrysleris, and J. W. Cweeney's Black Chief.

The candidates of the three-year-old division will be selected from the following smart young graduates from the juvenile class of 1912: N. K. Beal's Schaller, Lewis Garth's Eton, E. J. McGraw's Chukles, Albert Simon's Palanquin, J. O. Talbot's Tarts and Monocacy and Harry Payne Whitney's Discovery.

Chukles, a strapping son of Chilton and Charlie, in the stable of Max Hirsch, is the best looking of this bunch, and he is about ready. Palan-

Clarke, made a fine showing in the Richmond bowling tournament, and they have already signified their intention to entering the Petersburg team: W. Clarke, captain; Johnson, Smith, F. Clarke and Houldin.
